

Juliette Wilson, Founder

Juliette Wilson was born in New York; however, she spent the majority of her childhood in Washington, D.C. where she was educated in the D.C. Public Schools system and attended Howard University where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree. After graduation, Juliette started her career as a Process Engineer with Hoechst Celanese in Rock Hill, S.C. While working, she obtained a Master of Science Degree in Industrial Engineering. Desiring to expand her experience, Juliette moved to Carrier Corporation to work as a Quality Engineer and eventually transitioned to Wachovia Corporation, currently Wells Fargo Corporation where she has served in numerous roles and is currently a Business Initiatives Consultant.

Juliette's love for people and human kind have led her to do extensive work at her church and in the community. She has been an active member of Greater Gethsemane A.M.E. Zion church for over two decades and has served in an array of ministries. Currently she serves as a Deaconess, Intercessory Prayer leader, member of the missionary society, and one of the church clerks who shares weekly announcements. In March of 2008, Juliette founded the "Legend's Luncheon". This annual event is an outreach ministry for women who are transitioning out of homeless and has provided support to the Salvation Army's Center of Hope, the YWCA's Families Together Program, and the Harvest Center. This work led her to found Faith in Action Community and Educational Transition (FACET) Services, Inc, a 501c3 organization, so that she can better serve homeless women. Juliette also supports the community through her sorority, Rho Psi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, where she participates in programs designed to be of service to all mankind.

Juliette is a “go-getter” and is known for her kind, loving, and supportive spirit. She is also known as an encourager and she does this in so many unique ways such as sending out a “Thought for the Day” to encourage her Christian friends. Her motto is “I am blessed so that I can be a blessing to others” and her favorite scripture is “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me”. Whether she is with her family, in attendance at an AKA Sorority function, walking in her community, working in a challenging career, or at church, she strives to be a light so that others will see Christ through her. Her love for people and humanity are displayed in her daily walk. Above all, her greatest “Joy” is the blessing of motherhood. She cherishes the time that she spends with her daughter, Joy, who she believes is a blessing from God.
